2014 Pinot Noir, 1861 Vineyard, Sonoma Valley

CASE PRODUCTION: 45 | SRP: $90

Pale to medium ruby-purple colored, the 2014 Pinot Noir 1861 Vineyard offers notes of violets and roses over a core of black cherries, mulberries and loam, plus a waft of Provence herbs. The palate is medium to full bodied and laden with perfumed black and red berry flavors, supported by a firm backbone of ripe tannins and finishing with its earthy side coming through. Give it another 2-3 years in bottle to allow the full spectrum to emerge. - Robert Parker

2014 Chardonnay, Laceroni Vineyard, Russian River AVA

CASE PRODUCTION: 365 | SRP: $65

Near the town of Graton, this site provides cool-climate structure and personality to this wine. Olive, fig and minerality of the wetstone variety are lifted by aromas of beautiful white flowers. Fully balanced, with a voluptuous edge, it's powerful and pretty - V.B. Wine Enthusiast

Bright and refreshing acidity is the star of this lovely, windswept wine, powerful yet integrated in tannin and oak. The racy, feral notes of anise, apple blossom and nutmeg are complemented by a teasingly voluptuous spirit that never overwhelms. - V.B. Wine Enthusiast
